Plaintiff, Jorge Buron Ayllon has filed a five count complaint pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983 alleging violations of his federal rights. He has named four Defendants;

Emilio Gonzalez, Director, U.S. Citizenship & Immigration Services

Robert M. Cowan, Director of the RMC/Office #: LA-192 U.S. Department of Homeland Security Lee's Summit, MO National Benefits Center

Senator Robert Menendez

State of New Jersey Department of Motor Vehicles

Plaintiff has applied for leave to proceed without payment of fees or costs pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915. Although his application discloses that he has cash or checking or savings accounts in the total amount of $4,000, it also discloses that he is unemployed and possibly is liable for child support. His application under 28 U.S.C. § 1915 will be granted.

However, the court has an obligation under 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2) to examine a complaint filed in forma pauperis and to dismiss it if it is frivolous or malicious or fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted. 28 U.S.C. § 1915(e)(2)(B).

The court has examined this eight page, single spaced complaint and finds it to be utterly incomprehensible. One can infer from the allegations contained in the complaint's 67 paragraphs that commencing in August, 2005, Plaintiff had dealings with the drivers license section of the New Jersey Motor Vehicle Agency, that somehow his work permit petition sent from New Jersey to the U.S. Citizenship Immigration Services in Chicago became relevant, that in the course of the interactions with the agencies his name was set forth erroneously on critical documents, appearing variously as Buron or Buronayllon instead of Buron Ayllon, that a work permit he submitted to the Motor Vehicle Agency has vanished, that the mix-ups have created multiple problems for Defendant with credit cards, bank accounts and employment checks. Somehow all of this is entwined with “the issues of H.I.V., Cuban Mariel, and terrorism”. (Para. 29).

It is impossible to provide a coherent statement of the allegations of the complaint; instead, to provide some idea of the difficulties one has with this document, there will be set forth the title of each Count and a few representative paragraphs from the Count.

COUNT 1: VIOLATIONS of 42 U.S.C. 1983: CONSPIRACY

64. The abuse connect acts of master and slave and the master is listening with his spy equipments and the slave has to obey or be punish as BURON has been before the public separated from his job and without affection of his family.

From the complaint it can be inferred that Plaintiff has encountered problems in his dealings with the Motor Vehicle Department and other governmental agencies, perhaps suffering from bureaucratic confusions or ineptitude. Much as one might sympathize with Plaintiff, he has not set forth a claim against any person or agency cognizable under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 or under any other federal statute. Therefore, his complaint will be dismissed without prejudice. The court will file an appropriate order.
